The Premises:

Maria's place turned out to be a very small apartment in some sort of apartments-for-short-time-rent complex close to South Kensington tube station. Very safe and no problem walking pass some sort of reception and taking the lift.

The Lady:

The images on the agency web sites says it all. Beautiful!

The Story:

Maria was very welcoming and I felt at home right away. She offered me something to drink and we started out sitting on her bed. I was blown away immediately by her passionate kissing. I don't think I've ever felt so good and active DFK. I had trouble keeping up. Before getting any further, she offered me a shower and I accepted.

She did BBBJ very nicely. I got the feeling she wasn't all that interested about DATY and I didn't pursue or ask either. Sex in mish for some time and she came surprisingly fast. As always, she could have faked it, but if so she is a very good actress. I could really feel her coming and she giggled very cute both before and after she came, like she was really enjoying it. She even apologized since I had a minute more to go before I was finished. She was very energetic, both in the kissing and in the sex. Great!

Afterwards she gave me a good massage, even in my palms (not that it was sexual, but still a first time). We chatted for a bit and I really don't think you'll find a nicer girl in this business. I left very satisfied, although as is common for me, I misjudged the time and ended up spending a little less than the hour I payed for.
