The Lady:

About 5'7", size 10, soft golden blonde hair, gorgeous face, lips, eyes and jawbone. Lovely womanly figure. Enormous breasts. Description and photos on her website are accurate, but in person I found her twice as attractive.

The Story:

I invited Pearl to visit my home, about 45" drive from Exeter.

Pearl arrived looking demure and respectable - glasses, hair up, impeccably dressed. We had a glass of wine, a chat, and sorted the money out. Pearl loves the idea of being 'bought', and I always find the cash transaction exciting as well. I insisted she count it out in front of me, which got us both in the right mood. Pearl is relaxed, intelligent, polite & attentive company, and has a voice and accent to die for.

We'd already established that I wanted to include some spanking in our activities, and that I would be 'in charge' - but in a sensual and erotic way.

I won't give a vulgar blow by blow account, but we did agree that if I gave some explicit highlights of our time together, that would make us both aroused.

I started by asking Pearl to stand for inspection. I admired her hands, arms, neck, back, shoulders and face, enjoying not just touching, smelling and kissing her, but giving her a running commentary on her finest features. She was pleasingly, genuinely, abashed by this. I then made her lift her dress for me so that I could see her legs and underwear. Both were first class.

We proceeded to a spanking, with Pearl on all fours. Dress hiked up, she squealed and shrieked pleasingly while her bottom was reddening under her knickers. My only criticism was that her underwear started to slide across, revealing her lips, and I had to remind her it was a little early to start showing me her sex, whilst I made adjustments to retain her modesty.

On to more inspection - I had Pearl release her breasts for me to play with. They are fantastic, beautiful, and even better when painted with warm olive oil. I then had her strip naked for me in stages, taking time to admire her, to touch her, and to make complimentary comments. Sitting on my own sofa, with a glass of brandy and a cigarette, watching her stand on display for me with just her underwear around her thighs, is a memory that will last for years.

My friends, this report is in danger of becoming too long if I carry on in this vein...so I will just finish by telling you how she squeals and shrieks even more so when she reaches orgasm; how sweet her bare sex is to look at and to taste; how beautiful her tongue feels on my sex; how she will, if offered, give a splendid spanking in return. There's more, I'm afraid, but my own modesty doesn't allow me to recount the details. How pleased I was, though, to discover her kinkiness matched mine.

In short, Pearl is a stunning stunning woman to purchase for a few hours. I recommend her thoroughly.
