The Premises:

the venue is a bit like one of those streets after the blitz where there is only one house left. Spectacularly grotty both outside and in.

The Lady:

lithuanian vanessa, slim, great legs, friendly and not unattractive

The Story:

rather bonkers experience. scary madam behind a grill takes your ?10 entry fee, then into a room full of sofas clearly taken from skips. If you sit for long, which I did, you will see a series of largely taciturn scotsmen coming and going. All of whom should really lose a bit of weight. Ladies generally grumpy ? can't blame them ? and have a been-round-the-block-a-few-times look. After a free glass of 'irun bru', I hooked up with vanessa, who took me upstairs to a room which mirrored the rest of the building. We had a short but vigorous sucking/shagging session, with all sorts of restrictions - ?i don't do this/don't do that/that'll cost you ?10 extra? you know the sort. In and out of the bedroom in under 15 mins. But on reflection, the whole experience was rather fun ? or maybe it was actually a bit scary and that was the fun bit. It had a kind of heritage centre feel - maybe Glasgow Council should just arrange for the whole thing to move to Beamish. But wild horses would not get me back in there!
