The Story:

I booked to see "Lolita" and specifically asked the male receptionist if her photos were genuine. I was assured they were. When I arrived, the girl turned out to be Cassandra on the Aurum Escorts website whom I have previously reviewed under the name of Carmen.

Now don't get me wrong. Carmen/Cassandra is a nice girl to whom I have given a favourable review. She was apologetic about what had happened and having got this far I stayed and had a nice time with her. However I had not come to see her (and if I had, I would have booked through another cheaper agency).

There really is no excuse for this sort of thing. Whether "Lolita" even exists I do not know, but I texted the agency afterwards to complain and got no response. Draw your own conclusions.
