The Premises:

As described in report 88384, a very presentable flat above a shop, accessed via an external stairway. In his report Mr Pecker says "...in full view of an old peoples home, I'm sure the residents know what is going on!". Well I established that in fact, yes, the residents do indeed know what is going on and are actually on rather "friendly" terms with the ebullient Kitty! So no need to fret on that score.

The Lady:

Tall, slender, shapely South American brunette in her mid twenties. Legs that go on and on and lovely knockers like a couple of blancmanges. Me like.

The Story:

After a very friendly introduction she set about my old chap. OW was punctuated with GFE-style kisses and cuddles prior to the romp, which was brought to a mutually satisfying climax as she frigged herself vigourously. I was left to clean myself up, which is a detail that could be improved upon. Then a massage wound me down for the remaining time. All very nice really. I shall pop back to see Clarissa. I think she's lovely.

I was almost out of the door when I mentioned Mr Pecker's FR (from which I got the phone number). I was hauled straight back in and asked to show them how to check Punternet reports on the other girl's laptop!

On arrival I was offered a selection of drinks. I asked for water, but this was somehow overlooked and I almost died of thirst. Fortunately the other lass got me a glass of orange before I expired :-)
Thank you one and all.
