The Premises:

Anonymous shop unit close to West Horndon station. Feels discrete, despite cafe next door and houses opposite. Only uncomfortable moment is waiting outside for someone to answer door. Anyone who has visited before will be pleased to know that inside has finally been refurbished. As well as a proper bathroom, the massage room I was shown to was probably three times the size of the old cubicle. The massage table was more the size of a bed, so was far more comfortable. Overall a great improvement, however the entrance fee has now increased to ?20 from ?15.

The Lady:

Danielle is a very good looking blonde with a well toned, tanned figure, probably mid 20s. She did seem a little quiet and nervous but this did not spoil the punt.

The Story:

As I mentioned earlier, the refurb has certainly made this place more comfortable, and as ever the standard of the girls was high.

Danielle started off with a massage, more relaxing than sexy, and after a few minutes I turned over and she started on my chest before applying the condom to my hard cock. Unfortunately she doesn't kiss but was happy to lick my nipples, before I returned the compliment. She then lay on the table and I kissed her body and nipples, and we decided on sex with her on top - I don't think I could have coped with oral from her as well!! During sex she looked at me smiling, which was great to see. I soon exploded into the condom!

Another good punt here, the only real complaint now is still the cost (a full personal will set you back ?90 here, over 50% higher than the local competition.) However this is the best venue in terms of consistently high standards of girls and service, so maybe it is worth the extra.
