The Premises:

I didn't go in to Tracey's house, but it was on an estate to the north side of Shrewsbury. Became interested after reading a recent FR, so 'phoned her. She explained that she does incalls in her house during the week, but not at the weekend. I was musing about whether there might be anywhere else where the deed could be done, and she said that she would be quite happy to go al fresco.

The Lady:

She owned up to a size 16 (cf. 14 as described in the other FR, of which a printed copy I had taken to show her), and has a bit of a tum, but that's no real problem. She's in her mid-30s, has longish wavy hair, is of a nice friendly and chatty disposition and wore stockings and suspenders at my request.

The Story:

No satnav, so a slight difficulty finding her place, but eventually met at the end of her road. She got in the car and directed me out of town to fields along a narrow lane a mile or so past a locally-noted dogging area located at Haughmand Hill. I parked just through the gateway, and we walked a bit until I decided on a wheatfield. We went on into this about 50 metres, as far as a band beaten down by tractor wheels. Tracey got on her knees and gave me a lovely OWO. She then lay down and opened her legs so that I could finger her. Next followed a series of nice things, including a good fucking in mish, all the while DFKing, before, finally, I came on her very nice tits.

The sun was shining and would have been hot had it not been for a fairly strong breeze. I haven't shagged out-of-doors for, probably, 30 years, so this was altogether a "different" and unusual experience, one which I very much enjoyed. Tracey might best be described as a MILF-next-door, and, at ?40 / hour, is good value.
