The Story:

My number one pet hate in this game is inaccurate website photos. This was a case in point. I went to visit Joana because the website showed a sweet looking girl in her early 20s with nice curly hair. The woman who answered the door bore little resemblance to the girl in the photo. She was not unattractive if you like hour glass blondes (and many men do) but for the advertised price of ?250 (and indeed at any price) I expect that the girl I see will be recognisably the girl in the photographs. I paid her ?20 for her trouble and made my excuses, having wasted an hour travelling. Very annoying. PLEASE CAN GIRLS AND AGENCIES USE UP TO DATE AND ACCURATE PHOTOS!!!
