The Premises:

A flat above a quiet row of shops. Entrance was from behind the building and relatively well shielded from public view. You ring the doorbell and the maid (who was very polite and friendly) lets you in. At this point you are greeted by the steepest stairs known to man but once actually on the first floor the flat is spotlessly clean and I'm very pleased to say did not have that horrible old BO smell that some places have after a while.

The Lady:

Carmela is a beautiful young Russian girl who speaks perfect English. At the sessions end she asked me how old I thought she was and I said 22 which seemed to please her since she told me she was actually 26. She is about 5'8" and slim of build. Her breasts are large, in fact almost too large for her frame and from their feel and lack of movement I suspect they are implants but what the hey, I'm not complaining! She was clean, her perfume smelt wonderful and she had taken the effort to use mouthwash before she came in to meet me. She said that she normally worked in another establishment and was filling in for a friend but liked this flat very much and hoped she would be able to do more days there.

The Story:

Probably worth pointing out that I was extremely tempted to see the other girl working that day (Jessica - a petite, very pretty, very friendly Eastern European Blonde with a cute bum) but my love of brunettes swayed me. Maybe next time...

Basic half an hour here is ?60 but I tend to feel a bit rushed sometimes so I asked if I could pay a little more for a little longer which was readily agreed to.

I spent a very happy time with Carmela who went out of her way to accomodate. Kissing and foreplay was received and carried out with a rare enthusiasm and the sex was quite frankly over way to quickly for my liking as I would have liked to carry on longer but instead came with a shattering climax!!

After we'd dressed I was not rushed out of the room and Carmela and I sat and chatted for a while which didn't feel forced or done to fill up the time. A rare thing indeed.

I will definitely be back to this place again and I'll hope that the ladies working there (including the maid) are treated with the kindness and respect they deserve.
