The Premises:

The place was a pretty grubby dive - in a terraced house on a suburban street. Very innocuous from the outside.

The shower barely worked and towels were dirty.

The Lady:

The adverts (on Craigslist) were for a Brazilian girl in her early 20's. This is just a front - this is a knocking shop run by a Chinese woman in her 40s. There were 2 girls there - one Russian and one Spanish, both in their 20's and both pretty attractive.

The Story:

This was one of the worst punts I have ever had - almost comically so. I went for both girls as I thought it might be fun.

They were completely uninterested, unsexy and uncommitted. One of their phones rang after a few minutes and they proceeded to talk on the phone with someone while I lay there like a stuffed tomato.

I actually gave up after 20 mins as it was so bad. I complained to the madam and got some money back - but only ?30 and it was pretty painful/confrontational.

Avoid this place!
