The Premises:

Nice flat near the cricket ground. Clean and safe. There is a parking which accomodates about 8 vehicles - most of those parked were commercial looking vans and even a pick up truck. I was told I could use one of these spaces though I preferred to walk up the street from where my car was parked, for obvious reasons. Flat is in a good enough part of West Bridgford - you couldn't really feel much safer.

The Lady:

Petite brunette. Size 8, shoulder length hair. 24 years old.

The Story:

After a phone call from my car I walked down the drive and knocked at the white door. This was opened by Kylie - who was dressed in a one piece red lingerie number, very nice. I had requested a short skirt and cotton top but my email was not received in time. No matter, I liked the outfit. I would have been happy to sit on the sofa with her for a while but was ushered right to the bedroom. Clean and simple - with an array of condoms, lubricants etc on the windowsill and the bed next to the window. I asked if there was a clock on the room and was told not to worry as I would be informed when the time was up. I mostly enjoy embracing and kissing - which I what I did and was very happy with that. She is very feminine and pleasant to be with. Eventually I stripped off and after a little light massage and some beautiful owo - I was informed that I had 5 minutes to go. I opted for a hand relief finish. I would recommend her - she is very clean - smells nice - no trace of smoking at all and friendly enough. I would visit her again though I would say that a clock in the room would be useful.
