The Premises:

nice massage studio / business place looked very up market. clean tidy, very safe, plenty of parking in car park right outside.

The Lady:

this was a thai girl but not the same in photo. this thai girl had spots on her face and i could tell she was not the same as i have sen the photos before they decided to cover her face on the website.

The Story:

i decided to stay because it had taken over an hour to drive up there and she seems ok. well it could have been me. but this was a very lack basic massage. there was nothing sexual or exciting about it. i paid ?75 for the hour plus ?10 for extra and ?10 to have body to body. the body to body was her standing over me on a stool and just about rubbing her nipples on me for 20 seconds. at no point did we have real body to body massage. the oral with mac was not bad but nothing to right home about. i left feeling i had just wasted ?100 when you include petrol and time. i do not know about the others so take your chance is all i can say.
