The Premises:

Flat in residential part of Bayswater. Parking very difficult.

The Lady:

Blonde Eastern European woman in her late 20s/30. Medium build, straight hair. Nothing special to look at.

The Story:

I actually saw this woman through Kensington Babes where she was advertising under the name of Barbie. Her photos have now been taken down, but they are identical to those on the Palace VIP website who have her under the name of Samantha. Either the photographs were taken a long time ago or they are of a different woman. Either way she bears no relationship to the pictures. This is a pet hate of mine and is an automatic NO rating (unless the girl in reality is better looking than the fake pictures - a rare event and certainly not the case here!). Unusual from Kensington Babes whose gallery pix are usually very reliable and through whom I have seen quite a few cute girls. Indeed I went on to see Michele the same afternoon through them (see separate FR).
