The Premises:

Vlondonescorts apartment near south quay. Close to canary wharf but in the more run down part of the isle near city pride pub. Was met by a "driver" who let me into the apartment block.

Flat was ok although bedroom I suspected hadn't really had a good clean in a while... There was room spray by side of bed which I guess was a "cheaper" way of cleaning...

The Lady:

Dyanna was a pretty girl although not as stunning or glamorous as the site's photos make out. She had been in the uk for only a couple of weeks and her English was very limited. It was difficult to talk at all.

The Story:

Pretty bad experience overall. Having previously only seen house of divine girls, this was a very poor second. Dyana clearly didn't enjoy things, complained that she only got half of the money (the rest going to the "driver" and the rest to the agency).

Picked up her phone halfway through sex to confirm that I was kosher. It was quite clear that an hour wasn't on offer (even though that's what was advertised and paid for) and I wasn't unhappy to leave after 30 mins to be honest.

Overall, a bad punt. will stick with house of divine in future.
