The Premises:

This is a West London punt, really. I've put it in North London because everyone else has, so as to allow comparisons. Ela's works out of a converted flat in a residential stret near Kensal Rise station. The flat is adequate and obviously a home as well. It is one of those where you have to be really quiet, though. Otherwise, it's clean and well suited. Parking is a bit of a pain - there are some pay & display bays, and they're not that expensive - but if you can't get one of them, you could be in for a trek.

The Lady:

I contacted Ela after reading a stack of very positive FRs, and seeing that she was only charging ?50 for 30mins all in. That sounded good, so I gave her a try.

Ela is a slim European girl, well-proportioned and looking in good health. I think she looks older than many would claim - I would say she's in her early 30s. She has blonde hair, which she tied up, and on the occassion that I met her, she had just got in, and was wearing no make up at all. She did look fairly natural. I would say she's pleasant to look at facially. Her body is in good shape, she wasn't fully shaved on the day we met.

My understanding is that she's EE, but without being told, I wouldn't have thought so, and would have thought she was Western European. She looks and talks like a French woman.

The Story:

This punt was odd. I enjoyed it, and found Ela engaging and funny. She talked a lot and seemed to find the whole thing quite enjoyable. Although the punt was supposed to 30 mins, it actually lasted from 45-60, due to some odd interruptions for (amongst other things) her mistaking a political canvasser for a client, and the delivery of a fridge.

Her technique for OWO was very good, and she does indeed deepthroat very well (as FRs have claimed), did a few positions and completed on her chest.

It's worth mentioning that Ela has a foible that I have never come across before. Although she does OWO, she keeps a huge stack of kitchen roll next to the bed, and every minute of so, she spits into a sheet and throws it away. It didn't particularly bother me, but it might bother some.

In summary, she was pleasant, good company, didn't have any "bad" EE habits, and was good value for ?50/30mins. On the other hand, I get the impression that weird things can happen at her place, and she has the habit described above.
