The Premises:

Simple, clean, sparsely furnished basement flat in a good area just round the corner from Gloucester Rd tube.

Be careful, entrance is about 10 yds along Ashburn Place from Harrington Gdns NOT the basement entrance on the corner (as instructed by agency) which is very seamy.

The Lady:

Very pretty, slim and toned girl. About 5'5". All natural, lovely youthful B-cups.

Dark (dyed), soft, long hair. Shaven below.

The Story:

Greeted politely and shown to the room. No lights on, everything a little too dim as no candles only the glow of a large flatscreen TV in the large and empty living room. The bedroom was a box room with a bed and a camping chair. No attempt at making it welcoming.

First alarm rang when she claimed to be Spanish despite the site telling you she's E European (Romanian on another site).

Her conversation was quite winning so headed off to the shower to freshen up.

On return we settled on the bed and I was hopeful that this lovely looking girl would be a very exciting encounter.

WRONG! She asked what I liked and I said kissing would be nice, to which she said "I don't kiss, but I give you this." At which she lent down and gave me the sort of perfunctory peck that you innocently bestow on a little child. I should have called it quits then but I was starkers and she was astride me.

Decided to see how things would develop but alas from then on we just didn't gel. She's of the school that believes the harder you grip and rub a guy's dick the better it will be.

She's a wriggler so trying to go down on her or indeed shag her can be a bit of a challenge (great for those who like this but a drag for those who don't).

Doesn't mind being fingered or gently rimmed but discovered that she had a sponge fitted which probably explains my discomfort when entering her.

After 40 mins of trying things were going nowhere so I tried to wind things down. To her credit she seemed genuinely concerned that I didn't finish but him downstairs had decided this was a no go.

She claimed she'd given me 10 mins extra but after I showered and left I found that I'd only been in the place for an hour all in.
