The Premises:

Have been to indian palace before. On a main road, im sure the people who live near know about the place by now and why so many men seem to be going in and out every 30 mins or so. When i was going in, a man came out of the main door. im pretty sure he had just went in to see one of the girls.

The Lady:

sexy girl. her breasts are implants. small implants but very nicely shaped and very sexy. she has nice lips, face lips i mean. overall she is one true indian sexy lady

The Story:

Cant remeber the exact date of visit but it was in april sometime around 5. on the website it said she was ment to be working until 5, but i phoned up and they were happy for me to come just after 5. Ria came in and said she had just come back from a outcall from a hotel. she has a sexy indian accent. not a typical british born indian accent, if you know what i mean. this genuine indian accent was a massive turn on and it felt as if you were in some hotel in india itself and ria was the girl you met standing on the corner. she is friendly, nice smile and gets the job done. the red lipstick is a bonus. no idea why the other girls do not use bright red lipstick, but o well. if your looking for a girl who was brought up in india (so she said) and which i believe becuase of the genuine indian accent then you have found your girl. its a shame she did not let me cum on her implanted tits, still nice girl and nice job.

Service Provider's Rebuttal

The establishment writes:

We feel that the assumption in this report is misleading.

Our place is very discretely located. Although we are on the main road, it is a quiet part of the main road due to there only being two lanes on the bit of the main road we are on.

We are in an anonymous block. People come in and out of the block all the time, not just to visit our place. Lastly, there could not be any neighbour or person that lives near that would notice what was going on due to our location. Facing the main door to the building, on the right hand side, there is a door with electrics behind it. Then to the right of that door, there is a shop and to the right of that shop are more commercial premises.

On the left hand side of the main door to our block, is another block.

There are no doors or windows of houses that could make anything obvious to anyone.

Simpledan2008, we can only come to the conclusion that you feel that way due to you knowing why you were going into the block. There is no need to feel that way as the chances of it being that way are very slim due to everything mentioned above.
