The Premises:

Nice area near Paddington Station.

The Lady:

Looks totally different to the pictures. Build is the same, but doesn't look like the same person.

The Story:

I originally made an appointment for 90 mins, but when I got there Cassandra said she only had 1 hour. Turned out for the better.

There was no foreplay at all. She just lied there like statue, the only movement she made was to move her face when I tried to kiss her.

She was anxious to make me cum quickly, once I did, that was the end of the appointment, no round 2 on offer. So if there is no foreplay, and no round 2, what is the point of an hour booking? I paid for an hour and got 20 mins!

Worst punt I have ever had. I was looking forward to trying some other girls from this agency, but now I have second thoughts after this one.
