Smart modern apartment block at the Edgware Road end of Praed Street.

The Lady:

Statuesque, stunning and sexy! I'm fairly tall, but Helen matched me in her heels. A perfectly formed body perched on top of the most magnificent pair of pins. No matter whether you're a boob man or a leg man, (and why should we have to choose, eh readers?) you'll find something to admire. Oh, and she's equally stunning from the neck up as well.

The Story:

Helen is studying psychology (don't let that put you off). I think her specialist subject out to be "the psychology of the rampant male" because she's the sort of girl that could make a bishop kick a hole in a stained glass window.

Suffice it to say that a thoroughly energetic and satisfactory time was had by all. She appears to appreciate oral ministrations and returns the favour with enthusiasm and not a little skill. And the main event (or, more accurately, events) was marvellous. Top marks!
