The Premises:

Well located town centre apartment, easy parking in adjacent supermarket car park. Convenient for A38.

The Lady:

Tall, slim attractive Chinese girl. Accurately described by the maid except for her age, which I'm guessing was mid thirties. Enough English to keep the visit pleasant.

The Story:

Good visit. Standard 'full personal' routine for the Chinese shops which hit the spot pretty well. Eager to please with enough English to keep the visit pleasant. Hard working and never lost sight of what I was paying for. No rush.

Have used this shop a few times because of it's convenience and so far haven't been disappointed. Like most Chinese places the girl changes weekly. Unlike some places, no problem to 'walk' if you don't like the goods on offer.
