The Story:

Excellent time.I had asked for a hard massage and that's exactly what I got. Every part of me was massaged in a very professional manor, there were not any sensual strokes until I had turned over I would imagine with a softer massage it might become more intimate earlier. Excellent Hr and a brief massage at the end. A nice touch was when she covered me with a towel and left the room to let me recover at my leisure it gave me the impression if I wanted to sleep longer I could have done so. I was due to see Erica in Ealing but she increased her prices compared to the links to her site so I chose this place instead. I think I might become a regular now.
