The Premises:

My place so perfect!

The Lady:

Well what a refreshing surprise, a lady that looks better in the flesh than her photos. 5' 8" tall, blonde, leggy with a lovely bum and a face that just lights up when she smiles and a delight to be with.

The Story:

Was surprised the door bell rang and the beautiful Kate arrived - instant captivation! Shared a coffee and a general chat - discovered we had much in common including the same birthday. Kate is very open she basically loves sex and that comes out really early on - she is also bright, intelligent, educated and in a professional occupation too.

After a chat we headed off to the bedroom and Kate departed to the bathroom to put on the black/pink outfit that's on the website - and reappeared looking good enough to eat.

Had a chat about likes and dislikes - sexual preferences and soon discovered that long, slow and deep suited us both. Kate is an expert at oral (and loves the taste of a man's cock - her words not mine) and clearly loves a man to go down on her - she was soon really soggy.

She rubbed some massage oil on me and then slipped a rubber on (of the ribbed variety) and rode me cowgirl style - then I took her from behind - she is so tall that we were both standing and then exploded missionary style.

Cleaned up and sat chatting with another coffee - just excellent, felt like an evening with an old girlfriend rather than escort.
